❖ TORONTO, APRIL, 1882. ❖

IN Submitting our Price List for the Season of 1882, we do so with the fullest assurance that, taking into consideration the extra quality of materials used, and the superior construction of our Machines and the low prices will be found reasonable. A great advance in the cost of materials and wages has taken place which will undoubtedly further affect prices of Harvesting Machines very in the same direction next season. In the meantime we make but little change in our Price List, preferring to give our customers the benefit.
